

Amortization

Amortization is the process of gradually reducing a debt through regular payments over a period of time. In business, it can also refer to the spreading out of capital expenses for intangible assets over a specific period of time (usually over the asset's useful life).